MUSIC REVIEW

Listen carefully to one of the pieces on this week's "Watch" program, then draw or write your responses to the prompts below.

Use the box above to draw what you are feeling or imagining while listening to the music.

What instruments do you hear most in this piece? Which ones stand out to you as soloists or featured instruments?

What do you think this piece is about?

Composers often create a mood with their music, such as happy, sad, or lonely. This piece makes me feel:

If you could change the title of this piece, what would you call it? Why?
